Get Social Studies Resources for a School, Library or Historical Society

We support excellence in social studies instruction and promote civic engagement to help ensure all students are prepared to participate in our nation's democracy, economy and workforce. Our goal is to give all public and private K–12 schools nationwide free electronic access to the Americans All program resources. They reflect the importance of diversity in social studies instruction. This information includes ethnic and cultural texts, period-specific photographs and posters and a music CD. Our foundation invests more than half of its membership fees in strengthening history and civics instruction. To simplify school registration, our contact database includes information on most of our nation's public and private schools, and each is assigned an identification number. After schools become members of Americans All for free, they can give their Americans All ID number to students and their families and friends so they can create and publish life stories on our website, at no cost. Americans All members will find it easy to start creating their life stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in their name, date of birth and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks and photographs can be added over time.

After a free 3-month trial, Americans All members can subscribe to our Social Legacy Network to continue receiving discounts on goods and services from our business partners and get more benefits from Americans All.

By joining the network, teachers can access grade-level-specific resource databases with information that supports state history and civics content standards. Embedded in these databases are links to other information to help strengthen learning opportunities and facilitate interdisciplinary connections. In addition, teachers can electronically access the Americans All collection that includes ethnic and cultural texts and songs, posters, hundreds of period-specific photographs, reference texts and grade-level-specific teacher's guides. Moreover, sample lesson plans, simulations and test questions are offered. They can also take advantage of professional development opportunities that impart best practices for using these and other resources and also receive informative e-newsletters.

Add a Point of Contact for My School, Library or Historical Society

A point of contact is required to enable a public or private K–12 school, a library or a historical society to receive free benefits from the Americans All program. For continuity, the point of contact should be a permanent employee. This individual, acting as an agent for the education organization, must first create a free “User Account” for Americans All using the education organization’s e-mail address. This will allow the point of contact to create and update the education organization’s group story on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll and prepare its free Americans All Legacy Partner home page(s) on our Web site.

Americans All benefits:

- A free group legacy story—in multiple languages, if desired—on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll, including text, photographs, movies and other audio and video media. A 5-digit code will be sent to the point of contact after the education organization is registered.
- Links to the education organization’s home page(s) on our Legacy Partner Alliance home page. Education organizations can use their home page(s) to describe their activities and to host stories of past and current students, teachers, employees, members and their families. Each internal group can have its own free Americans All Legacy Partner home page.
- Electronic access to the existing Americans All program resources that reflect the importance of diversity in social studies instruction. These include our ethnic and cultural texts, music publication, period-specific photographs and posters.

Schools:

Americans All assigns a 6-digit ID Number for each school in our education database based on its official name in the state’s directory. However, many schools are identified by a shorter or more popular name, such as “Holy Child” for “Francis School of the Holy Child” or “PS 166” for the “Richard Rogers School of Arts & Technology.” To register, there are four options:

- If you know your school’s ID Number (A), enter it into the field below and select “Submit.”
- If you do not know your school’s ID Number, click on “Find a School” \(B\) and a list of all schools in our database will appear. When you locate your school and click on “Select this school,” you will be returned to this page and your school ID Number will appear in the field. Then select “Submit” to continue.
- If your public or private school is new or not listed in our contact database, click here \(C\) to add your school and become its point of contact.
- If you want to recommend an individual to become your school’s point of contact, click here.

A point of contact is required to ensure the organization's eligibility to access instructional resources. To become a point of contact, an individual must create an Americans All user account, for which there is no cost.

The point of contact can access the organization's Welcome Back page to update the organization's information and add the names of teachers, members and administrators who can access instructional resources. For that reason, the point of contact should be a permanent employee.

Americans All does not share or publish point of contact information or the names of teachers or administrators participating in the program.

Once an organization has designated a point of contact, it automatically becomes a member of the Americans All Legacy Partner Alliance. Alliance members can host Heritage Honor Roll legacy stories of current and past students, teachers and their families on the organization's Americans All home page(s)—in multiple languages, if desired. Moreover, organization Legacy Partners will also receive a 5-digit code to create and preserve a legacy story on their organization for the Heritage Honor Roll, at no cost. The code will be sent to the point of contact's e-mail address after the organization has completed its registration.

Museum

The Smithville Heritage Society, established in 1975 and located at 602 Main Street, is known locally as the headquarters for Smithville's history. The Society sponsors programs open to the public each year that focus on our area history. In addition, the Museum is open by appointment to visitors including vacationing guests, researchers, historians, and school children—both home-schooled and public school students. The Society enjoys holding open houses at the Museum for civic events and occasionally hosts local organization meetings.

Behind the Heritage Society Museum is a small metal building housing the "Archives." Residing within this climate-controlled structure are archival-safe boxes that hold a treasury of historic documents, photographs, and other historic items. Visitors or residents may obtain research assistance and information about their historic home or business, a family member who lived here and/or worked for the railroad, or a historic event which happened in the Smithville area. The Archives contain early Smithville newspapers, files about citizens, residences, businesses, and organizations such as churches, schools, and clubs. Files are kept not only about Smithville, but also for surrounding towns such as Kovar, Cistern, West Point, Pin Oak, and several other communities.

Legacy Stories from the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll

We are pleased to host and share these legacy stories created by honorees' family, friends and associates. They, like us, appreciate that heritage and culture are an integral part of our nation's social fabric and want to help students participate effectively in our nation's economy, workforce and democracy.

Thank you for registering your education organization for Americans All. By clicking on the "Create a legacy story for the Heritage Honor Roll" link on your Welcome Back page, now or at any time, you can create and permanently share a story that honors your school. Legacy stories acknowledge that heritage and culture are rich aspects of personal or group identity, and they lend future generations knowledge and inspiration. We invest more than half of our membership revenue to support excellence in social studies instruction for all K–12 students. This will help ensure they are prepared to participate in our nation's democracy and increasingly diverse economy and workforce.

Keep in mind that, as a point of contact, you can modify or update the legacy story of your education organization at any time and at no cost. You can also share this legacy story on the Americans All home pages of other Legacy Partners. To do so, go to your "Welcome Back" page and click on "Edit my legacy story" under the "Actions" tab. If you create the legacy story in multiple languages, you must repeat this step for each version you create.

Click on “Create a legacy story for the Heritage Honor Roll and receive other benefits.” When the pop-up appears, select “click here” to continue. Your story can later be created in multiple languages, if desired.

Sample Heritage Honor Roll story for an education organization.

Cox-Hyson Home, Smithville, TX Historic Building

As a Bicentennial gift and through the generosity of Floyd R. "Skip" Hyson and his wife, Lucille, the newly-organized Smithville Heritage Society received the Cox-Hyson house as a permanent home for the Society in 1976. Built in 1908 for John Cox and his wife, Irene Wilkes Cox, the house was the family home of the John Cox family. Following John's untimely death in 1916, the house passed to his wife Irene, then their daughter Lillian Cox Hyson in 1952. Upon Lillian's death in 1976, the house went to her son, "Skip" Hyson, who then donated the house to the Smithville Heritage Society.

The home is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and has remained mostly unchanged since it was built except for minor interior changes and necessary restoration and maintenance work done by the Heritage Society. It sits in exactly the same location as when built. The wraparound porch and tall ionic columns with decorative corbels remind us of a typical two-story, early 1900s Victorian house, neo-classical in style. It is not "high Victorian," but "transitional," characterized by

On the first floor, there is a formal entry, parlor, dining room, bathroom, country kitchen and an enclosed porch, once a sleeping porch. The lovely staircase in the formal entry hall has original turned pine balusters and railings and . . .

Our Web site displays information using a standard Latin character set. At no additional cost, you can create your honoree's legacy story in an additional language besides English. To do so, locate the desired language and click on "Create a translation" under the "Operations" tab. When the template appears, it will contain a copy of the English-language version of the legacy story. You can create your new story in two ways:

- If you can change your keyboard settings to the desired language, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text.
- If you cannot change your keyboard settings to the desired language, prepare your honoree's story in the desired language offline and cut and paste the new language text to replace into the template to replace the English-language text.

Text and image fields that are not modified will remain the same as in the English-language version. If you do not find the additional language you desire listed below, please contact us and put the word "Additional Language" in the subject line.

Note: Many words and expressions do not have the same meaning in all languages. To ensure your honoree's legacy story in the new language carries the same meaning as the English-language version, we advise that you do not rely on an automatic translation app.

American All members can directly add their legacy story to as many Legacy Partner home pages as they desire. However, an organization’s point of contact can remove or reinstate a legacy story from its Legacy Partner home page at his or her organization’s discretion.

Education organization Legacy Partners can host Heritage Honor Roll legacy stories of past and current students, teachers, employees, members and their families on the education organization’s Americans All home page(s)—in multiple languages, if desired. If circumstances warrant, however, the education organization can easily remove a story from its home page(s). By clicking on the “Edit” button at the top of your Americans All home page (M), you will be taken to a page to remove or reinstate a legacy story as well as update your Legacy Partner home page.

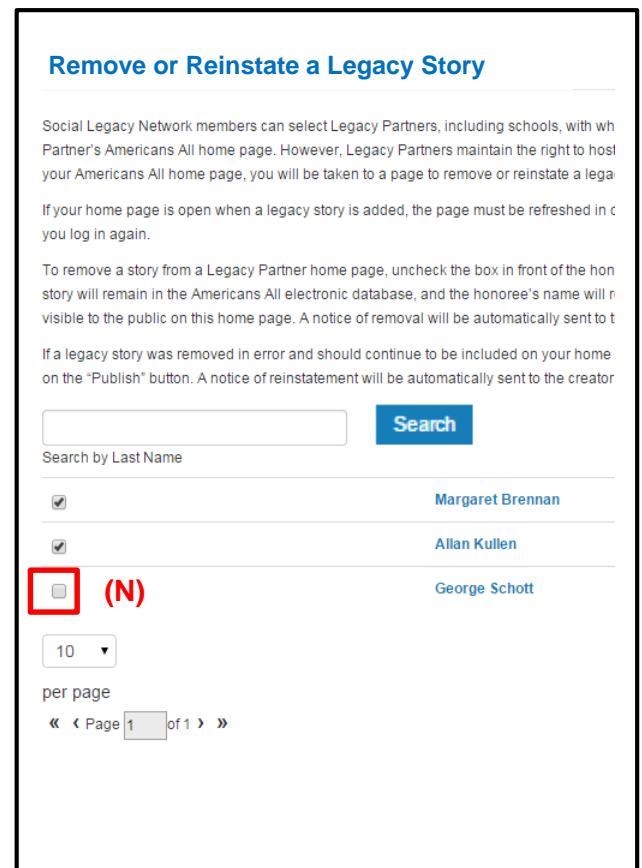

If your home page is open when a legacy story is added, the page must be refreshed in order for it to appear. Otherwise, it will automatically appear when you log in again.

To remove a story from a Legacy Partner home page, uncheck the box in front of the honoree’s name (N) and click on the “Publish” button. The honoree’s legacy story will remain in the Americans All electronic database, and the honoree’s name will remain on the Legacy Partner’s “Edit” page. The legacy story will not be visible to the public on this home page. A notice of removal will be automatically sent to the creator of the legacy story.

If the legacy story was removed in error and should continue to be included on this home page, place a check in the box in front of the honoree’s name and click on the “Publish” button. A notice of reinstatement will be automatically sent to the creator of the legacy story.
